

Tips On How to Care For Your Seeds at Home

1. Keep your jar in a sunny spot
2. Keep the paper towels damp, but not too wet
3. A nice way to keep the sprout, and towels damp is to spray them with a spray bottle. This way they won't get too wet.
4. You should start to see your seed sprout within 2 or 3 days!

Related Library Resources to Explore at Home!

INFORMATIONAL BOOKS

How A Seed Grows By Helene J. Jordan

This introductory science book provides accessible information on how seeds become plants, and trees. Also includes activity ideas!

Seeds Go, Seeds Grow By Mark Weakland

Part of the Science Sparks series, this book provides detailed, in-depth photos of seeds in all stages - and includes seeds from sunflowers, to watermelons!

INFORMATIONAL VIDEOS

How Does A Seed Become a Plant? Produced by SciShow Kids

This fun video describes the process of how a tiny seed becomes a huge plant! It also defines words such as germination, and parts of the seed.

Find this video by going to youtube.com, and searching "How Does a Seed Become a Plant."

Olivia Plants a Garden, Produced by Olivia the Pig (Official Channel)

Everyone's favorite literary pig has a ball waiting for her plants to grow, after her teacher gives them seeds to plant in the garden!

Find this video by going to youtube.com, and searching "Olivia Plants a Garden."

PICTURE BOOKS

The Carrot Seed By Ruth Krauss

This timeless classic is about a little boy who perseveres challenges to grow a very large carrot seed!!

Plant The Tiny Seed By Christie Mathieson

This colorful picture book invites kids to tap, count, and wave at the tiny seeds that will soon bloom into a beautiful garden!

